ORGANIZERS:

Asian American Society of Central Virginia— The AASoCV is a non-profit, non partisan organization established in 1998 to promote, strengthen and enhance relationships among the Asian and Pacific American communities as well as the Central Virginia Region by creating awareness and understanding of Asian American interests and cultural diversity through leadership and advocacy. <http://www.aasocv.org>

Coalition of Asian Pacific Americans of Virginia— Established in 2002, CAPAVA is a non-profit, non-partisan pan-Asian statewide organization founded to advocate the policies and issues of Virginia's Asian & Pacific American communities. This voluntary organization is comprised of Virginians from every APA community in the state. CAPAVA provides APA communities with information on state and local programs, policies that affect APA communities, and promotes access to Commonwealth and local government. <http://www.capava.com>

Virginia Asian Advisory Board— The Virginia Asian Advisory Board was created by Executive Order in 2001 by former Governor Mark R. Warner to build better business relations and advise the Governor regarding issues affecting the Asian community. The purpose of the Board shall be to advise the Governor on ways to improve economic and cultural links between the Commonwealth and Asian nations, with a focus on the areas of commerce and trade, art and education, and general government; as well as issues affecting the Asian community in the Commonwealth. <https://vaab.virginia.gov>
